6 ITIES.

7 “(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary, in consultation
8 with the Director of NIH and the Director of the Insti-
9 tute, shall establish within the Department of Health and 10 Human Services, a publicly-available clearinghouse to pro-
11 vide information with respect to resources and information
12 for people with an intellectual disability and the caregivers
13 and families of such people. Such clearinghouse shall in-
14 clude—

15 “(1) information on individual community-based 16 services and long-term support services available to 17 individuals eligible for medical assistance under a
18 State plan under the Medicaid program under title
19 XIX of the Social Security Act (or a waiver of such 20 plan);

21 “(2) information on how to obtain health care,
22 mental health care, and other relevant services; and

23 “(3) a searchable database of such resources
24 that may be searched by postal zip code.

25 “(b) PROMOTION.—The Secretary shall, as applicable
26 and appropriate, identify and disseminate promotional ac-

1 tivities to improve, among people with an intellectual dis-
2 ability and the caretakers and families of such people, the 3 awareness of the resources included in the clearinghouse
4 established under subsection (a).

5 “(c) MODEL.—In establishing the clearinghouse
6 under this section, the Secretary may use the website
7 thinkdifferently.net as a model.”.
